"GOOD MORNING, MADAM!"

By Mack Sennett.

Ralph and Oscar, a couple of book agents starving to death, find themselves in a restaurant with a lot of women to feed, but they have no money. Ralph pretends he's been robbed but the story doesn't impress the proprietor. Oscar wants to marry Thelma but she loves Ralph and tells her father he will make him a pauper if he doesn't consent. Thelma pretends Oscar is a baron and just to gain time, wants to marry him. The ceremony proceeds but Ralph arrives just in time so that he and Thelma are married.
